

NATIONAL CONFERENCE '2016-17'

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ART AND SCIENCE OF MANAGEMENT FOR THE CURRENT DECADE

Management is an area which always focuses on updating yourself with the recent changes in existing scenario. A good manager is a one who always keeps himself updated with the recent advancements in the scenario. Keeping in view of this idea MATS School of Management Studies and Research had conducted a National Conference on the theme "National Conference on Art and Science of Management for the Current Decade". The department received an overwhelming and enthusiastic response from the academicians, industry experts, practitioners and scholars as participants. The main motive behind choosing this theme was to focus on the importance of management in the current decade as a driver for future success. Resource persons and participants showed their interest shared their views and opinions regarding the theme.
