

NATIONAL SEMINAR 2012-13
PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Women are integral part of society. Keeping in view of this ideology MATS School of Management Studies and Research had conducted a National Seminar under the theme "Participation of Women in Business". The department received an overwhelming and enthusiastic response from the academicians and scholars. The motive behind choosing this theme was to focus on the importance of participation of women in business. Participants showed their interest, shared their views and opinions regarding the theme. National Seminar was really an erudite successful event.

