

MATS UNIVERSITY

Press Release

International Journalist spoke: “Reinvent Media” to MATOSONIANS

MATS school of Arts and Humanities, Department of English organised a guest lecture on “Media: National and International Needs to Reinvent” on 1st April 2019 in MATS University, Pandri campus. Mr Narendra Jha, Former Associate Editor, Khaleej Times, Dubai was present as the speaker on this occasion. In this session, senior journalists, Mr Awdhesh Malik Mr Ashok Tomar and Mr Manish Singh also enlightened the students.

The session was conducted under the guidance and supervision of Assistant Professor Journalism and mass communication, Mr Saurabh Shukla. Compeering was done by faculty member Rakesh Jana with welcoming of Guests by presenting books. Speaking on the occasion, Mr Narendra Jha described the importance of media and its role in democracy .He spoke on the responsibility of a journalist and said believe only when satisfied with the origin of the news. He encouraged the students to participate in healthy debate keep it alive in national level and to be a good listener. He added that youth has huge potential and they need to channelize the energy in correct direction. He emphasized that there is need for more positive approach towards the profession of journalism.

He extended his lecture through power point presentation in a very engaging manner. Mr Jha urged the students to be multitasking and multidisciplinary in their areas of interest to face the upcoming challenges of the modern world. The guest lecture was followed by an interactive session with the students and the faculty members of the department. The lecture was concluded with a vote of thanks by faculty member Papri Mukhopadhyay. The session was successfully accomplished by the active support and cooperation of Dr Mahima Gautam, Head of the Department, English and the faculty members - Saurabh Shukla, Sital Bera, Rakesh Jana, Lalitank Jain and Papri Mukhopadhyay, and the presence of the students from different Schools of Studies of the University.

more

