

MATS School of Business Studies
Students Induction Day
Soft Skills Session
20th September 2021

Today on 20th September 2021 School of Business Studies MATS University Conducted one Live Session on Soft Skills for the Under Graduate Students of B.Com & BBA by the National Level Corporate Trainer Mr.Bhavesh Bhansali

The Session was focused on Communication Skills and Personality Development and the Trainer highlighted all the Key aspects of Body Language and how to develop the communication and what are the Pros & Cons of it, the Session was highly enjoyed by the Students and the session was very interactive as the trainer played various management games and the Students actively participated in the session

At last the questions hour session was conducted in that session the trainer expert handled all the queries very patiently