

Successful completion of first batch of 'BOSCH Caregiver Paramedic Training Course' in association with MATS University Raipur.

MSEIT, MATS University Raipur, in its pursuit to impart Skill Enhancement Paramedical training program, today (29.01.2022) conducted the Paramedic Kit distribution session of "Caregiver Training Course" in association with BOSCH India Ltd. The Entire training programme was of three months duration, out of which the first module of the entire training session was of one month which was conducted in on-line mode to be followed by subsequent one month off-line sessions and one month of OJT i.e. On the Job industrial training. This course of study and training aims at equipping the participants with the required skill sets to embark upon their entrepreneurial medical journey.

The program began with a well – informed and motivating address by our Hon. V.C. Prof.(Dr.) K.P. Yadav sir highlighting the academic / Industrial efforts in imparting skill based Paramedical education. The state coordinator for BOSCH India Mr. C.S. Pandey also interacted with the participants. IACL (Industry Academia Collaboration Lead - Skill Entrepreneurship) Dr. Brijesh Patel, Principal MSEIT, also addressed to the young aspirants towards Caregiver paramedical course. The entire session was conducted by SME (Subject Matter Expert – Caregiver Programme) Prof. Sheetal Gajjalwar of MSEIT.

The vice chancellor of the University, paid amply stress on the need of the society, Medical facilities and the nation as whole and stated measures to be adopted by the youth potential of our society, which in-turn will generate employment by building his career in such skilling courses. The focused in his speech about how the young trainees could make his own start – up and what the aids which he can get through such initiative programmes.

The honorable chancellor of MATS University, Shri Gajraj pagaria has always been a source of encouragement in all our endeavors. The director general of Mats university Shri Priyesh Pagaria conveyed his eagerness to see the introduction and successful completion of such courses. The programme was also graced by Pro – VC Dr. Deepika Dhand, the registrar Shri Gokul Anand Panda of the event organized at MSEIT Mats university Raipur C.G.

