

School of Information Technology Conducts 5 Day Orientation Program

School of information technology, MATS University conducted 5-day orientation program covering many indoor and outdoor activities. The program was initiated from 26/07/2018 with induction program participated by more than 250 newly admitted students opted for the courses like MCA, BCA, BSc (CS), BSc (A&GD), PGDCA and DCA. The program started with the warm welcome thereafter students were addressed by faculties of school of information technology stated about department profile, academic schedule, examination process, sports activities, and library. The session was concluded with the distribution of curriculum matrix of courses executed under the department of school of information technology.

On second day dated 27/07/2018 Friday, program initiated with the department movie highlighting various activities of different domains hosted within and outside of the department specially training, internship, national and international seminar, excursion tours, industry visit, cultural programs, award winning sessions and other societal activities. Mr. Satish Gokul Panda (state youth coordinator, Art of Living) and Ms. Akanksha Nayak (Faculty Art of Living and Gold Medalist, Psychology) conducted a session of 2 hours discussing about time management, stress management, pranayama and meditation and their importance in daily as well as in corporate sector.

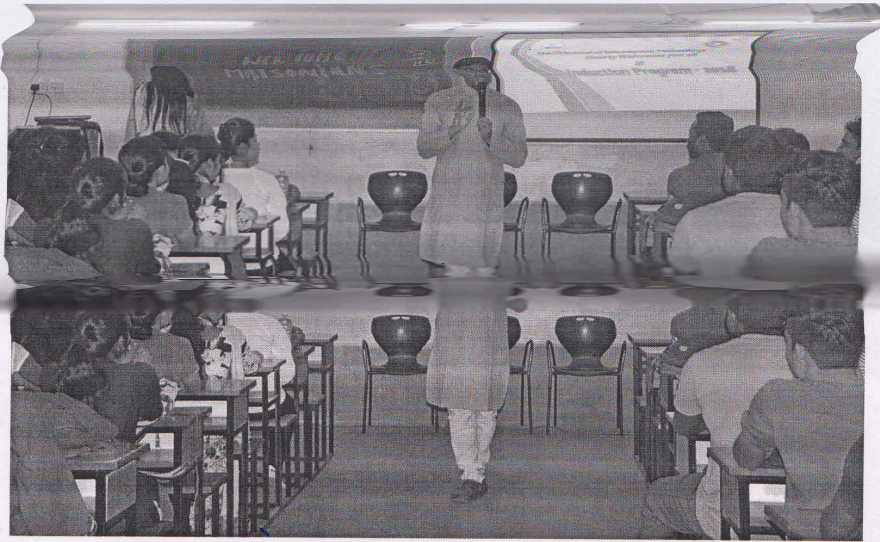

Faculties from the department (MSIT) spoke with the new students and addressed about important aspects starting from career orientation, opportunities in IT industries, CSI and its importance, NPTEL and foundation courses of Tata Institute of Social Science and the session was concluded with the painting competition entitled "My Creativity" with the participation of more than 200 students chasing the theme "Green Chhattisgarh clean Chhattisgarh".

Day third dated 28/07/2018 students were taken to outdoor along with the entire staff of MSIT activities started from Marine drive Telibandha with poster presentation crafted by the students and more than 200 plants (Neem, Shisham, Babool, Badam and Kadam) from the student and faculties of department of MSIT were distributed among the civilian of city to make them aware about environment and to keep surrounding cleaner and greener, thereafter the group went for the tour of Purkhauti muktangan at naya Raipur to get to know more about Chhattisgarh, its culture, traditions, festivals and living styles of rural people of different customs and beliefs.

Day four 30/07/18 will start with lot of exciting indoor games (solo and group) followed by different activities and will be concluded with the session of article writing and time management conducted by the inter department faculties of the university.

Last day dated 31/07/2018 will be an official orientation program for the students of School of Information Technology starting with the inspirational words of Colonel Prof. (Dr.) Byju John (Vice Chancellor, MATS University) and Shri Gokul nanda Panda (Registrar, MATS University) followed by the welcome speech of Ms. Rita Dewanjee (HoD, MSIT). Dr. Ajay Garg, Joint Director (DTE) will be invited as a chief guest and Mr. Nagesh Banchod from Pro C will be the special guest on the session.

Head of Department
School of Information Technology
MATS University

R. Dewraj
 Head of Department
 School of Information Technology
 MATS University